

Sara Spuntarelli

Pro-rector with responsibility for People, Well-being, and Opportunities.

She is a full professor of Administrative Law at the University of Camerino since 2019.

Her research activities concern five main areas: separation of powers, relation between law and administrative measures, rule of law and due process of law, interpretation by the administrative judge, emergency decision-making.

She is coordinator of research project, including research projects of national significance (PRIN 2022 about "Permanent transition and and adaption of administrative measures). She is the author of three books and she published about 85 peer-reviewed scientific contributions (articles, case-law comments and chapters of books). She has been invited as a speaker in many scientific symposia and seminars and organised scientific meetings and seminars. She is a member of the Italian Association of Professors of Administrative Law.

She teaches Administrative Law and Administrative Justice at the School of Law and is the Director of the Advanced Course and Training Course of the Health Management (Marche Region). She has experience in institutional roles related to policies and regulations for administrative simplification, transparency, and equal rights.

She has served as a member of the Board of Directors and the University Quality Office.